

Satisfactory Progress

---

Student Athletes

In addition to meeting the general academic requirements of the university, student athletes must meet all academic requirements, including those relating to satisfactory progress toward a degree, set forth in the legislation of the Southeastern Conference (SEC) and of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA).

Student Financial Aid Recipients

In addition to meeting the general academic requirements of the university, applicants for student financial aid funds must maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress to receive, or to continue to receive, assistance through federal, state, and institutional student aid programs. Descriptions of these Satisfactory Academic Progress requirements for distinct classifications of Auburn students are available from the Office of Student Business & Account Services.

Veterans

All students who are eligible and receiving Federal VA Education Benefits (Chapters 30, 31, 33, 35, 1606, 1607), in addition to meeting the general academic requirements set forth by the university, must maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) as approved by the State Approving Agency of the State of Alabama, Department of Education. If the students who are utilizing one of the benefits listed above does not meet SAP, his/her enrollment will be terminated with the VA. For these specific standards, please refer to the Satisfactory Academic Progress section of this bulletin.
