

Financial Information

Auburn University's fees have remained somewhat lower than those charged by similar institutions in the Southeast and in other sections of the country. As institutional costs have risen, the Board of Trustees has authorized small increases in fees from time to time. Every effort is made, however, to hold fees and charges at a minimum.

The following fees and charges are in effect at this time. However, since the catalog must be published well in advance of the next school year, it is not always possible to anticipate changes. Thus, the fee schedule may have to be revised. Every effort will be made to publicize changes as far in advance as possible.

- Academic Common Market (<http://bulletin.auburn.edu/generalinformation/financialinformation/academiccommonmarket/>)
- Alabama and Non-Alabama Student Policy (<http://bulletin.auburn.edu/generalinformation/financialinformation/alabamaandnonalabamastudentpolicy/>)
- Basic Charges (<http://bulletin.auburn.edu/generalinformation/financialinformation/basicchargesrevisedmay/>)
- Financial Aid (<http://bulletin.auburn.edu/generalinformation/financialinformation/financialaid/>)
- Other Fees and Charges (<http://bulletin.auburn.edu/generalinformation/financialinformation/otherfeesandcharges/>)
- Scholarships (<http://bulletin.auburn.edu/generalinformation/financialinformation/scholarships/>)

In accordance with Public Law 115-407 Sec. 103:

Students utilizing VA education benefits shall not be charged a penalty, including assessment of late fees, denial of access to classes, libraries, or other institutional facilities, or be required to borrow additional funds because of the individual's inability to meet their financial obligations due to the delayed disbursement of a payment to be provided by the Department of Veterans Affairs.