

Construction Management — Graduate Certificate

This graduate certificate provides a foundation of all construction processes that constitute a project, from development conception, through project financing and design, into the on-site construction phase and management of the facility. The purpose of the certificate is to provide an introduction to comprehensive construction management topics such as estimating and scheduling as well as an understanding of the contractual and legal aspects that drive the decision-making process in the construction industry.

Code	Title	Hours
Construction Management - Graduate Certificate
BSCI 7100 - Construction Cost Estimating		3
BSCI 7100 - Construction Project Management and Scheduling		3
BSCI 7120	Construction Law and Risk Management	3
BSCI 7110 or BSCI 7150	Construction Contracting Business Heavy Civil Construction	3
Total Hours		12