

Public History — Graduate Certificate

---

This graduate certificate is designed to provide students a grounding in the fundamentals of the field, including the skills necessary to plan and carry out comprehensive programs of research, identifying and locating relevant secondary literature, archives and/or with other substantial collections of primary sources. This certificate will prepare individuals for employment in public history organizations, ranging from museums and public heritage groups to historic sites, archives, and state agencies, including the National Park Service.

Code	Title	Hours
Public History - Graduate Certificate
HIST 6810	Fundamentals of Public History	3
HIST 7700	Seminar in Historical Methods	3
HIST 7910	Public History Internship	3
Select 9 Credits in the Following:		9
HIST 6710	Fundamentals of Archival Theory and Practice
HIST 6820	Historic Preservation and Cultural Resource Management
HIST 7720	Seminar in Archival Theory and Practice
HIST 7730	Seminar in the History of Records and Archives
HIST 7970	Special Topics in History
Total Hours		18