

Natural Resources — MNR

Code	Title	Hours
Natural Resources (MNR)
Select 30 Credits in @ 6000-8999 (Electives)		30
Total Hours		30

Natural Resources (Distance Option) — MNR

The distance-learning option enables students to participate in online learning. The College of Forestry, Wildlife and Environment offers the Masters of Natural Resources distance program (non-thesis), which is the online version of the Masters of Natural Resources (non-thesis option) program. The MNR (non-thesis) degree requires a minimum of 30 graduate semester credit hours. All courses in the degree must be taken for a grade.

Natural Resources (MNR)
 Select 30 Credits in @6000 – 8999 (Electives)
 Total Hours 30