

Intervention for Students with Autism & Developmental Disabilities — Graduate Certificate

Intervention for Students with Autism & Developmental Disabilities — Graduate Certificate (<https://education.auburn.edu/serc/academic-programs/special-education/cert-intervention-autism-disabilities.php>)

This graduate certificate allows teachers and educational professionals professional development leading to improved educational outcomes for students with developmental disabilities and autism spectrum disorders. This certificate would be for special education teachers or other appropriate participants in Alabama's public schools and the region to provide instruction for children with developmental disabilities and autism spectrum disorders.

Fully Online and Fully On-Campus Options

Code	Title	Hours
Intervention for Students with Autism & Developmental Disabilities - GCRT
RSED 7230	Advanced Behavior Management in Special Education	3
RSED 7400	Curriculum and Teaching in Specialization (Or RSED 7980 Non-thesis Project [Special Education EdS program only])	3
RSED 7410 or RSED 7980	Introduction to Rehabilitation and Case Management in Rehabilitation Counseling Non-Thesis Project	3
RSED 7420	Research in Specialization	3
RSED 7430	Research Into Practice	3
Total Hours		15