

Intercultural Communication Minor

Minor in Intercultural Communication

The 18 hour Intercultural Communication minor is designed to provide students with a comprehensive understanding of the nature of communication and culture in order to prepare them for living and working in a diverse and complex society. The minor is open to all undergraduates students with the exception of those majoring in programs housed within the School of Communication and Journalism.

Required Courses (6 hours):

Code	Title	Hours
CMJN 2100	Concepts in Communications and Journalism ^{Required}	3
COMM 3450	Intercultural Communication ^{Required}	3

Electives (12 hours)

Code	Title	Hours
Group 1:	See advisor for approved course list.*	6
Group 2:	See advisor for approved course list.*	6

*at least nine hours from Group 1 & Group 2 must be at the 3000 level or higher.

Note: If a student has taken a course to fulfill requirements of the School/College core or the major, it cannot count toward the minor. In this case, the student must select an additional three hour course from the approved list of courses. Students must earn at least a 2.0 in the minor to successfully complete it.

Total Hours: 18