The Department of Educational Foundations, Leadership and Technology offers degree programs, graduate certificates, and a minor. Degree programs lead to a master of education (non-thesis option), master of science (thesis option), specialist in education, or doctor of philosophy. Graduate degrees are available in the areas of administration of elementary and secondary education, administration of higher education, administration of supervision and curriculum, adult education, educational psychology and library media. The graduate certification programs in administration of elementary and secondary education (instructional leadership) and library media are approved by the Alabama State Board of Education (ALSBE). The College of Education is accredited by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE).
Applicants to the department’s graduate programs must satisfy the Graduate School’s admission requirements. Departmental admission requirements include a degree from an accredited college or university, competitive Graduate Record Examination (GRE) or Miller Analogies Test (MAT) scores, a GPA of at least a 2.75 on undergraduate coursework, a statement of intent, three recommendations, and any remaining admission requirements as identified by the program or department.

Master’s Degree Programs (MEd/MS)

Master’s degree programs are offered in administration of elementary and secondary education, administration of higher education, administration of supervision and curriculum, adult education, and library media. All programs require a minimum of 30 semester hours, an internship and/or practicum, and a comprehensive examination.

Master’s-level certification programs include instructional leadership (MEd in administration of elementary and secondary education) and library media. Admission requirements established by the Alabama State Board of Education, including those pertaining to a clear background check, prior certification, and teaching experience must be satisfied prior to admission to one of these programs. Degree requirements for both programs are in compliance with State regulations. Graduation requirements include a passing score on the appropriate Praxis II subject assessment.

In accordance with State regulations, effective for students unconditionally admitted to certification programs prior to July 1, 2017, a minimum GPA of 3.00 is required on all courses used to meet master’s-level certification program requirements. Effective for students unconditionally admitted to certification programs July 1, 2017 and after, a minimum GPA of 3.25 will be required on all courses used to meet master’s-level certification program requirements.

Specialist in Education Degree Programs (EdS)

EdS programs are offered in administration of elementary and secondary education, adult education, and library media. All programs require a minimum of 30 semester hours, a directed field project, and a comprehensive examination.

Specialist-level certification programs include instructional leadership (EdS in administration of elementary and secondary education) and library media. Admission requirements established by the Alabama State Board of Education, including those pertaining to a clear background check, prior certification, and teaching experience must be satisfied prior to admission to one of these programs. Degree requirements for both programs are in compliance with State regulations.

In accordance with State regulations, effective for students unconditionally admitted prior to July 1, 2017, a minimum GPA of 3.25 is required on all courses used to meet specialist-level certification program requirements. Effective for students unconditionally admitted July 1, 2017 and after, a minimum GPA of 3.50 will be required on all courses used to meet specialist-level certification program requirements.

Master’s- and Specialist-Level Certification

Individuals completing State-approved master’s-level certification programs are eligible to apply for Alabama Class A certification; individuals completing State-approved specialist-level certification programs are eligible to apply for Alabama Class AA certification. Individuals seeking certification in states other than Alabama are responsible for contacting those state certification offices to obtain their application form and requirements. The State of Alabama signs the National Association of State Directors of Education and Certification (NASDTEC) Interstate Agreement which facilitates the applications of program graduates when they apply for certification in other states.

Doctor of Philosophy Degree Programs (PhD)

PhD programs require a minimum of 87 semester hours beyond the bachelor’s degree. Research methods, statistics, and foundations of education are components of all doctoral programs. The department offers a doctorate in the areas of administration of elementary and secondary education, administration of higher education, administration of supervision and curriculum, adult education, and educational psychology. After satisfactory completion of coursework and a general written and oral examination, the student advances to candidacy. Doctoral students must register for at least 10 hours of dissertation credit while completing a dissertation.

Minor and Graduate Certificates

The Department of Educational Foundations, Leadership and Technology offers a minor in sport management and graduate certificates in adult education, college/university teaching, educational leadership, extension educator, instructional leadership, instructional technology (technology educator and instructional technology for distance education), and program evaluation. In addition, the Department in collaboration with the Department of Curriculum and Teaching offers a graduate certificate in adult education and English language teaching.
