

History — PhD

Code	Title	Hours
PhD History
HIST 7700	Seminar in Historical Methods	3
HIST 7710	Graduate Research and Writing Seminar	3
HIST 7860	Research Project Design	3
HIST 8700	Historiography and Theory of History	3
HIST 8710	Introduction to the Teaching of History	3
HIST 8720	Introduction to Graduate Studies	1
HIST 8730	Introduction to the Historical Profession	1
Historical Debates Seminar Requirement ¹		9
HIST 7240	Debates in Early American History
HIST 7250	Debates in Modern American History
HIST 7480	Debates in European History
Readings Course Requirement ²		9
Select 6 Credits in @ 6000-8999 ³		6
Select 15 Credits in @ 7000-8999 ³		15
HIST 8990	Research and Dissertation	10
Total Hours		66

¹ Students concentrating in U.S. history are required to take all three seminars. Students concentrating on European history should take HIST 7480 two times and either HIST 7240 or HIST 7250.

² Students will complete up to 9 hours of graduate readings courses (e.g., HIST 8000, HIST 8010, etc.) in preparation for preliminary examinations. If a student uses less than 9 hours, the remaining hours shift to other graduate history electives.

³ Of these history graduate elective hours, at least 2 courses must be outside of the student's exam fields. Up to 2 courses may be non-HIST graduate courses.