

Women's and Gender Studies Minor

The Women's and Gender Studies Program offers an interdisciplinary graduate minor in Women's and Gender Studies, open to any graduate student. The minor provides students with specific coursework in women's and gender studies and a teaching practicum that helps prepare them to teach an introductory women's and gender studies course. The minor is recommended for students who seek positions in women's and/or gender studies departments or joint positions for which part of the responsibility is to women's and/or gender studies.

Students are required to complete 10 hours of graduate-level coursework, including WMST 6980 (Feminist Theory; 3 hours) and WMST 7910 (Teaching Practicum; 1 hour). Students fulfill the remaining hours with graduate courses cross-listed with Women's and Gender Studies; these must be from outside of the student's home department. See the Women's and Gender Studies Program website for a full listing of course offerings. <https://cla.auburn.edu/womens-gender-studies/>.
