

Civic Life and the Public Good Minor

The minor in Civic Life and the Public Good will provide students with an introduction to the knowledge and skills essential to participating actively in civic life and seeking the public good. The minor is open to students from any college or major and features an intentional cluster of courses and experiences that can concentrate this learning and radiate it out into the students' own academic programs and postgraduate lives.

Code	Title	Hours
Required Foundation Course		3
CLPG 3000	Foundations of US Civic Life
Foundations of Civic Life (choose 1)		3
PHIL 3600	Classical Political Philosophy
PHIL 3620	Contemp Political Philosophy
POLI 3020	Intro To Political Theory
POLI 4340	Contemporary Political Theory
Communicating in Civil Society (choose 1)		3
COMM 3110	Persuasion
COMM 3300	Communication and Conflict
COMM 3700	Argumentation
Civic Knowledge and Democratic Fluency (choose 1 from below or any on above list)		3
HIST 3300	Grecoroman Civilization
HIST 5010	Am Rev Early Nation 17631800
PHIL 3640	Philosophy Of Law
POLI 3270	Policy Process
POLI 3290	American Executive Politics
POLI 3310	The Legislative Process
POLI 3320	Judicial Process
POLI 4050	American Local Government
LEAD 3200	Leadership for Global Society
LEAD 4000	Leadership in Practice
Capstone Course		3
CLPG 5000	Civic Life Capstone
Total Hours		15